Local Bank Holds Annual Meeting

(April 2, 2018 – Algona, IA) Shareholders of Mid-Iowa Bancshares Co. received a message of continued strength from Chairman, President & CEO Tom Van Overbeke at their annual meeting held on Tuesday, March 20, 2018. The holding company of Iowa State Bank reported that total assets of the bank stood at $307 million at year-end 2017.

Van Overbeke cited the bank's strong employee culture as one of the ongoing reasons behind the bank's continued strength and strong performance. The bank's board of directors added a new director to its slate of officers. Jason Wartick, Executive Vice President & Chief Credit Officer, was named to the board of Iowa State Bank in addition to his promotion as executive vice president. In addition, Kristie A. Brown was also named Executive Vice President, Trust and Human Resources Development. Four new officers were added to the bank including Patty Hammer, Assistant Vice President Operations; Rosalind Gomez, Mortgage Loan Officer; Julie McGrauth, Personal Banking & Operations Officer; and Richard Gores, Information Security & Systems Officer.

In other promotions, Larry Conlon was named Senior Vice President & Branch Manager of the Ruthven office. Brenda Schutjer was named Vice President Branch Manager in Corwith and Wesley. Robert Geesman was named Vice President Commercial & Ag Loans and Ben Kern was named Assistant Vice President Commercial Loans. Amy Wolter was named Trust Assistant.

In other board news, R. Scott Whyte of Goldfield retired from his service to Mid-Iowa Bancshares Co. and Iowa State Bank. Whyte had served the boards since March 2004. In addition, directors Tim Struecker of Algona and Sara Guenther of Algona were re-elected to the board of directors.
