Local Bankers Earn Certificates from Consumer Credit School

(Algona, IA – March 28, 2018) Iowa State Bank of Algona is pleased to announce that three of their personal bankers, Jenna Betz, Kirsty Riggert and Tana Schultze, successfully completed the Iowa Bankers Association Consumer Credit School held in early March.

The school is an intense one-week program sponsored by the Iowa Bankers Association. Its purpose is to prepare consumer credit personnel who want to broaden their consumer credit knowledge or who have not been exposed to formal consumer credit education. Students work to develop a better understanding of the consumer credit function, deepen their comprehension of the managerial aspects of consumer credit operations and refine the administrative and human relations skills needed to serve customers.

Betz and Schultze are personal bankers in the Algona office while Riggert is a personal banker in Wesley. Betz has been with the bank since 2015. Schultze joined the bank in 2012 and Riggert joined the Wesley office in 2017. “We’re pleased to add to the skills of our personal bankers by expanding their knowledge of consumer lending,” stated Jason Wartick, Executive Vice President & Chief Credit Officer. “Our customers ultimately benefit from the increased knowledge of our employees,” Wartick stated.

Iowa State Bank is a $307 million community bank with offices in Algona, Corwith, Ruthven and Wesley. The bank has been voted a “Top Iowa Workplace” by the Des Moines Sunday Register for six years in a row. (END)
